WHO IS TREVOR ROMAIN?

Trevor Romain is an award-winning author and illustrator as well as a sought-after keynote speaker. His books have sold more than a million copies worldwide and have been published in 23 languages.

For more than 30 years, Trevor has raveled to schools, hospitals, summer camps, and military bases throughout the world, delivering stand-up comedy with inspirational self-help messages to hundreds of thousands of school-age children. He has been the keynote speaker at numerous education, mental health conferences and has appeared on national and international media outlets.

Trevor is the former president of the American Childhood Cancer Organization and is well known for his work with the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the United Nations, UNICEF, USO, and co-founder of national 501(c)3 non-profit The Comfort Crew for Military Kids.

Since 2007, Trevor co-founded The Trevor Romain Company, a multimedia educational brand, to create materials designed to help kids to become happier, healthier and more confident through a variety of resources.

Trevor was born in South Africa and now resides in Hawaii.
