Frequently Asked Questions

What is The Trevor Romain Company?

The Trevor Romain Company is a supplemental education publishing company that develops supplemental curricula to promote social, emotional, and physical fitness for students. The company is the culmination of two decades of Trevor Romain's work with students that has inspired children's books, curricula, DVDs, music, and a variety of other programs and products that speak to students in their own language. The content of The Trevor Romain Company is designed for students in grades K-12, offering them solutions to life's tough situations in ways they can understand. By using sound pedagogy and research-based strategies combined with imagination, humor, animation, live-action cinematography, the company's programs are designed to promote self-confidence, develop self-management behavioral skills, and help students succeed academically.

Who is Trevor Romain?

Trevor Romain is the creative mind and spirit behind The Trevor Romain Company. As a compelling children's motivational speaker, best-selling author/illustrator, and award-winning video personality, Romain has traveled to schools nationwide, delivering his brand of inspirational stand-up comedy with a self-help message to tens of thousands of children. Putting a human face to the need of social and emotional fitness, Romain uses his own childhood struggles, shared with humor and creative flair, to teach students ways to manage life's ups and downs. Because Romain demonstrates such terrific rapport with students, educators have turned to Romain's strategies to help students learn the rewards of self-management and higher academic achievement.
